

A free iPhone App is now available which allows the public to submit requests directly to the city. PublicStuff launched the app this month, which can be downloaded through iTunes.